

We cannot be	on _	that
0	our speaking.
We cannot be	on _	that
0	our speaking.
Esther 4:10-17
officials and the people man or woman who as been summoned—the that person live. I have last 30 days." Esther's immessenger to reply to Jews because you are and deliverance will coyour father's house will royal position for such assemble all the Jews for three days, day or in the summon or woman or work and the summon of t	e of the royal province oproaches the king in death penalty. Only if not been summoned response was reported Esther, "Don't think thin the king's palace. If ome to the Jewish peol be destroyed. Who latime as this." Esther who can be found in Snight. I and my female he king even if it is ag	him to tell Mordecai, "All the royal ces know that one law applies to every the inner courtyard and who has not if the king extends the gold scepter wild to appear before the king for the ed to Mordecai. Mordecai told the hat you will escape the fate of all the lif you keep silent at this time, liberatio ople from another place, but you and knows, perhaps you have come to your sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or dring escriptions are servants will also fast in the same was gainst the law. If I perish, I perish." So lad ordered him.
Saying somethin something		always requires doing something that only	something _	•
You are things.	positione	ed to say
Don't take something.	the	when you say
Say	to serve	who can say
•

We live our lives carrying too much that costs us too much.

Esther spoke to Hathach and commanded him to tell Mordecai, "All the royal officials and the people of the royal provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard and who has not been summoned—the death penalty. Only if the king extends the gold scepter will that person live. I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the last 30 days." Esther's response was reported to Mordecai. Mordecai told the messenger to reply to Esther, "Don't think that you will escape the fate of all the Jews because you are in the king's palace. If you keep silent at this time, liberation and deliverance will come to the Jewish people from another place, but you and your father's house will be destroyed. Who knows, perhaps you have come to your royal position for such a time as this." Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days, day or night. I and my female servants will also fast in the same way. After that, I will go to the king even if it is against the law. If I perish, I perish." So Mordecai went and did everything Esther had ordered him.  Saying something always requires doing something	Mordecai went and Saying someth something only	d did everything Esther had ningsomething something	_ always requires doing something that
Esther spoke to Hathach and commanded him to tell Mordecai, "All the royal officials and the people of the royal provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard and who has not been summoned—the death penalty. Only if the king extends the gold scepter will that person live. I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the last 30 days." Esther's response was reported to Mordecai. Mordecai told the messenger to reply to Esther, "Don't think that you will escape the fate of all the Jews because you are in the king's palace. If you keep silent at this time, liberation and deliverance will come to the Jewish people from another place, but you and your father's house will be destroyed. Who knows, perhaps you have come to your royal position for such a time as this." Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days, day or night. I and my female servants will also fast in the same way. After that, I will go to the king even if it is against the law. If I perish, I perish." So Mordecai went and did everything Esther had ordered him.  Saying something always requires doing something	Mordecai went and Saying someth something	d did everything Esther ha	_ always requires doing something that
Esther spoke to Hathach and commanded him to tell Mordecai, "All the royal officials and the people of the royal provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard and who has not been summoned—the death penalty. Only if the king extends the gold scepter will that person live. I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the last 30 days." Esther's response was reported to Mordecai. Mordecai told the messenger to reply to Esther, "Don't think that you will escape the fate of all the Jews because you are in the king's palace. If you keep silent at this time, liberation and deliverance will come to the Jewish people from another place, but you and your father's house will be destroyed. Who knows, perhaps you have come to your royal position for such a time as this." Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days, day or night. I and my female servants will also fast in the same way. After that, I will go to the king even if it is against the law. If I perish, I perish." So Mordecai went and did everything Esther had ordered him.  Saying something always requires doing something	Mordecai went and Saying someth something	d did everything Esther ha	_ always requires doing something that
Esther spoke to Hathach and commanded him to tell Mordecai, "All the royal officials and the people of the royal provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard and who has not been summoned—the death penalty. Only if the king extends the gold scepter will that person live. I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the last 30 days." Esther's response was reported to Mordecai. Mordecai told the messenger to reply to Esther, "Don't think that you will escape the fate of all the Jews because you are in the king's palace. If you keep silent at this time, liberation and deliverance will come to the Jewish people from another place, but you and your father's house will be destroyed. Who knows, perhaps you have come to your royal position for such a time as this." Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days, day or night. I and my female servants will also fast in the same way. After that, I will go to the king even if it is against the law. If I perish, I perish." So Mordecai went and did everything Esther had ordered him.  Saying something always requires doing	Mordecai went and	d did everything Esther ha
Esther spoke to Hathach and commanded him to tell Mordecai, "All the royal officials and the people of the royal provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner courtyard and who has not been summoned—the death penalty. Only if the king extends the gold scepter will that person live. I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the last 30 days." Esther's response was reported to Mordecai. Mordecai told the messenger to reply to Esther, "Don't think that you will escape the fate of all the Jews because you are in the king's palace. If you keep silent at this time, liberation and deliverance will come to the Jewish people from another place, but you and your father's house will be destroyed. Who knows, perhaps you have come to your royal position for such a time as this." Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days, day or night. I and my female servants will also fast in the same way. After that, I will go to the king even if it is against the law. If I perish, I perish." So Mordecai went and did everything Esther had ordered him.	Mordecai went and	did everything Esther ha officials and the perman or woman who been summoned—that person live. I hast 30 days." Esthemessenger to reply Jews because you and deliverance with your father's house royal position for subsemble all the Jefor three days, day	ople of the royal province of approaches the king in the death penalty. Only if the death penalty. Only if the death penalty. Only if the ave not been summoned it's response was reported to the tention of the king's palace. If the king's palace. If the look of the Jewish peowill be destroyed. Who known a time as this." Esther was who can be found in Sornight. I and my female	s know that one law applies to every he inner courtyard and who has not the king extends the gold scepter will to appear before the king for the to Mordecai. Mordecai told the at you will escape the fate of all the you keep silent at this time, liberation ple from another place, but you and nows, perhaps you have come to your sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go and usa and fast for me. Don't eat or drink servants will also fast in the same way.
		,
our speaking. We cannot be on that			that